

Abstract

In this talk, I will report on some ongoing work (with Professor Y. C. Su) on the so-called para-Virasoro and quasi-primary elements, which are used to study representations and combinatorial aspects of conformal algebras.