

Abstract

In this talk, a class of binary sequences with two-valued cross correlations and a class of ternary sequences with at most three-valued cross correlations are presented.