

Abstract

We will talk about our recent work, a resolution of a longstanding problem on the sharp curl-Sobolev inequality for differential forms on the round sphere. We then present its geometric and variational applications that settle several open problems and conjectures in geometry and mathematical physics. This is a joint work with Mingwei Zhang.