嘉宾简介

Biography : After studying at École Normale Supérieure in Paris, Merel has obtained his PhD from Sorbonne Université in 1993 (then UPMC-Paris 6). After having been researcher at CNRS and UC Berkeley, he has been professor at Université Paris Cité since 1997. Merel has been chairman of the large joint department of both Sorbonne Université and Paris Cité from 2016 to 2020. His research focuses on Number theory, in particular the arithmetic of automorphic forms, with applications to diophantine geometry, for instance the proof of the Uniform Boundedness Conjecture for elliptic curves.
