Abstract

In the case of positivity preserving forms, there is no single measure on the path space, therefore we introduce and study Optional measurable positive continuous additive functionals (O-PCAFs), which may play similar roles as PCAFs do in the framework of Dirichlet forms.

The talk is based on a joint research with Xian Chen and Xue Peng, to appear in Annals of Probability.