

Abstract

Private information retrieval plays an important role in privacy protection. In this talk we introduce the connection between MDS codes and PIR schemes. By replacing MDS scalar codes with MDS array codes, we build optimal PIR schemes over small finite fields.