Abstract

We consider the discrete periodic Schrodinger operators. By introducing a notion of weak separability, we prove that two generalized partially Fermi isospectral potentials have the same weak separability. We also study the isospectrality of the components of two generalized Fermi isospectral potentials.