

Abstract

In this talk, we introduce the interacting random particles with power-law long-rang hopping. Via the multi-scale analysis arguments for the Green's function, we establish the power-law localization for all energy with strong disorder.