

Abstract

In this talk, we consider a fully parabolic two-species chemotaxis model with competition. At first, we show that all the solutions are globally bounded when  $n=2$ . Moreover, we get the longtime convergence of the solutions when at least one of the two competition coefficients is bounded. This is a joint work with Michael Winkler in University Paderborn.