Abstract

I will give a survey on the program of categorification for quantum groups, some of the recent developments and applications to representation theory.