

Abstract

The arithmetic phase transition conjecture of the almost Mathieu operator is proposed by Jitomirskaya in 1994. We will introduce new proofs and generalizations of it via quantitative structured reducibility method. This is based on several joint works with Jiangong You, Xin Zhao and Qi Zhou.