

Abstract

In this talk, we introduce some facts of codes in distance-regular graphs. Then take a folded n -cube as an example, we present how to get a new upper bound of the code in it by using block-diagonalizing the Terwilliger algebra of it and on semidefinite programming.