Abstract

This provides some background for the second talk: we give an introduction to the notion of the micro-support of sheaves, and the local models for constructible sheaves on the front plane associated to a Legendrian knot, as developed by V. Shende, D. Treumann, and E. Zaslow. Time permitting, I will also introduce the irregular Riemann-Hilbert correspondence over curves.