Abstract

In this talk, we mainly focus on the spreading speeds of the nonlocal KPP equations in heterogeneous media. We developed the generalized principal eigenvalue theory for diffusion operators and used this theory to estimate the upper and lower spreading speeds of diffusion systems. In particular, we proved that the spreading speeds exist when the environment is almost periodic or random stationary ergodic for lattice system.