

Abstract

The BLM realization provides a remarkable algebraic construction of quantum groups via  $q$ -Schur algebras. This talk focuses on the BLM approach and its extension to  $i$ -quantum groups arising from quantum symmetric pairs. We review the Schur-type structures underlying the BLM construction and explain how stabilization techniques lead to realizations of quantum groups and their  $i$ -analogues.